DAVID GORDON JAZZ TRIO

One of Europe's best-kept secrets, the David Gordon Trio has a dedicated fan-club in Japan and parts of the USA.

The trio has made several tours of the UK and Denmark, which have included concerts at PizzaExpress Jazz Club, London, Copenhagen Jazzhouse and the Aarhus Jazz Festival. The trio's five CDs have met with critical acclaim, especially in Japan, where they have sold more than 6,000 copies.

A prize-winning composer, David's tune Angel Feet appears in Sher Music's publication The European Real Book, while back in the UK, tracks from the trio's CDs have been featured on thejazz.com and on Jazz FM.

Recent performances include a live session on BBC Radio 3, a sold-out concert at London's King's Place, as well as a collaboration on a newly-commissioned work by David, inspired by Bach, with the London Chamber Orchestra at Cadogan Hall in London.

*'One of our most brilliant pianists ...
David Gordon's technique is absolutely outstanding ... but it was the sheer togetherness of the Trio that was just as important, displaying a grasp of dynamics and tempo changes such as one rarely encounters on jazz gigs.'*
